

Complaints Handling Policy

If you have a complaint, then this note sets out the procedure which complies with Rule 7 of RICS Regulation's Rules of Conduct for Firms, which we will follow in dealing with that complaint.

2. Where your complaint is initially made orally, you will be requested to send a written summary of your complaint to the person dealing with it.
3. Once we have received your written summary of the complaint, we will contact you in writing within fourteen days to inform you of our understanding of the circumstances leading to your complaint. You will be invited to make any comments that you have in relation to this.
4. Within twenty eight days of receipt of your written summary, the person dealing with your complaint will write to you, in order to inform you of the outcome of the investigation into your complaint and to let you know what actions have been or will be taken.
5. If you are dissatisfied with any aspect of our handling of your complaint, you should contact Mr M A Lawley BSc. FRICS MCI Arb. He is the Cooke & Arkwright Chairman and will personally conduct a separate review of your complaint and contact you within fourteen days to inform you of the conclusion of this review.
6. Following this and if the complaint cannot be resolved, we will then refer you to an independent redress mechanism which is approved by the RICS Regulatory Board.
